

It's Snowing again and we are in for a lot of snow!

The fact that it is snowing is big news here at Jenny's Sewing Studio. The fact that we are getting over 6" is an even bigger deal and a rarity. I am sure a lot of my neighbors to the south and north are having lots of snow too. I am just glad it is not sleeting or raining here.

Enjoy the day and have fun in the snow! It is a perfect day to sit and sew!
