

Memory pillow design from Jenny

Recently I told you about a memory pillow I made for a customer. The pillow was from a man's shirt. My newest memory pillow is for a woman and shows a design that celebrates the life of wife, sister and daughter. The pillow was cut from a favorite dress. I was able to make 5 pillow tops from her favorite dress. I added my own blended calico strips for the unique look. Here is my pillow design. If you would like more information on my sewing services, use the contact form below.

Save

Save