

Sewing, Serger and Embroidery Demonstrations for Free

Save the date! Jenny will be demonstrating embroidery machines, software and serger sewing at Hancock fabrics. Join me November 26th from 9:30am to 11:30am for a free demonstration on gingerbread man ornaments at Hancock Fabrics in Salisbury, MD. Free downloads of the embroidery design are now available at our video, design and photo gallery.

I ask you to register so I can have seating available. Call Hancock at 410-677 3461, it's free!

Join Jenny Saturday November 26th from 2-4pm for a free demonstration on serger quilting. The "Log Cabin" and the "Layer Cake" scrap quilt will be demonstrated. I ask you to register so I can have seating available. Call Hancock at 410-677 3461, it's free!

Our next demonstration will be held December 7th. Free Motion Machine Quilting 10:00 -12:00 and serger sewing for the holiday 2:00- 4:00pm. See you in class.

Make sure you check out our upcoming sewing class schedule. Here is one of my recent sewing students learning to sew. Tony is now creating pillows for his chairs. He said he saw a man sewing his daughters wedding gown and decided he could sew too. Come join us in class.
